

ARIZONA STATE UNIVERSITY

ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

- Small classes
- University admission without TOEFL (undergraduate/graduate)
- Concurrent enrollment
- 4 and 8 week programs
- Six language levels
- Speaking, listening, reading, writing and 18 elective classes
- Computer labs
- TOEFL preparation
- Business English Certificate
- Close to Grand Canyon, Las Vegas, Los Angeles and Mexico
- Homestays, dorms, apartments
- Weekly social, cultural and recreational activities
- Affordable university tuition and living costs
- Students from more than 60 countries each year
- Customized group programs
- Beautiful location with a pleasant climate

The American English and Culture Program (AECP) is located in Tempe, a top-10 college town, on Arizona State University's beautiful campus. ASU is the third-largest university in the U.S. and offers more than 230 top-quality degree programs. AECP is an intensive language program.

